

With a method that has proven itself successful for more than 15 years, PackshotCreator engages itself in order for your teams, accompanied with a head of mission, implement easily and smoothly our solutions in your company. This will allow you to start with your photo production. These modules can be completed, or not, with a PackshotCreator training.

PackshotCare Essential

Information gathering

Personalized slides

250 €

1/2 attendees

2h

Software installation and online setup

2D Profile

Focused on productivity, this express module will allow you to acquire sufficient knowledge to start smoothly with your PackshotCreator.

After an information gathering with your product manager, the head of mission will create a personalized guideline, adapted to your needs.

You will then proceed together with the installation and the software setting, you will create a complete 2D profile*.

PackshotCare

Information gathering

Personalized slides

850 €

3/4 attendees

4h

Software installation and online setup

2D profile

Background removal profile

360° Profile

A month of phone support with your project manager

After an information gathering with your project manager, the head of mission will create a personalized guideline, adapted to your needs.

You will then proceed together with the installation and the software setting, you will create 3 complete profiles.